PURPOSE

Klimasan undeniably cares about the contributions of its suppliers, which are its biggest business partners, in its success and fulfilling its responsibilities to its stakeholders. Therefore, the efficiency of the supply chain is very valuable for the sustainability of responsible products and services. In this context, a common language of behavior has been established with its business partners within the scope of “ethical, honest and fair business” and “sustainable activity”, which Klimasan adopts as its basic principles.

This Code of Conduct Document defines the principles that Klimasan expects its suppliers to follow throughout their business association. Klimasan Supplier Code of Conduct Document sets out the minimum standards that Klimasan expects its suppliers to meet. The specified attitudes and behaviors in that document constitute the inseparable basic principles of Klimasan's way of doing business throughout its value chain.

APPLICATION OF THE RULES

By signing a contract with Klimasan, the suppliers of Klimasan undertake to act in accordance with the principles described in this document. The expected compliance here covers all countries, facilities and operations in which they operate and Klimasan also recommends integration into their own supply chains.

Klimasan has the right to periodically request information and documents from its suppliers and to conduct on-site or remote audits in order to confirm whether its suppliers comply with the Supplier Code of Conduct.

Klimasan; in case a violation of the Code of Conduct is detected, it has the right to terminate the business relationship with the supplier unilaterally or to request the implementation of a corrective / remedial action plan to eliminate the violation, and to perform complementary audits for the actions envisaged in the said action plan.
